
European e-Competence Framework for the ICT Sector

Dudley Dolan

Other Tools

European Quality Labels Project

http://www.e-competence-quality.com/

E-Competence Framework

http://profiletool.ecompetences.eu/

EXIN

http://www.ecfassessment.org/en/2/e-competence-assessment

Interest in Europe

- A national standard in Italy
- Netherlands Government, Ministry of Economic Affairs, basis for National e-Skills Strategy
- EXIN
- Dutch CIO Group
- UK, SFIA
- Ireland QQI
- Germany DIN Conference
- Airbus and many companies

© CEN-CENELEC 2011

Interest from Outside Europe

Japan, IPA

USA, IEEE

SFIA

Canada

Brazil

Russia

Egypt

© CEN-CENELEC 2011

What is ahead?

- The e-Competence Framework (e-CF) becomes a European Standard with an EN number (CEN PC 428)

Work on ICT professionalism continues;

  - Work on a foundation level BOK, Mapping of certifications to e-CF
  - Work on a code of ethics

- Job Profiles and Career Paths linked to the e-Competence Framework
- Organisational competence linked to individual competence via the e-Competence Framework
- Curriculum Guidelines based on the e-Competence Framework

CEN CENELEC

Conclusion

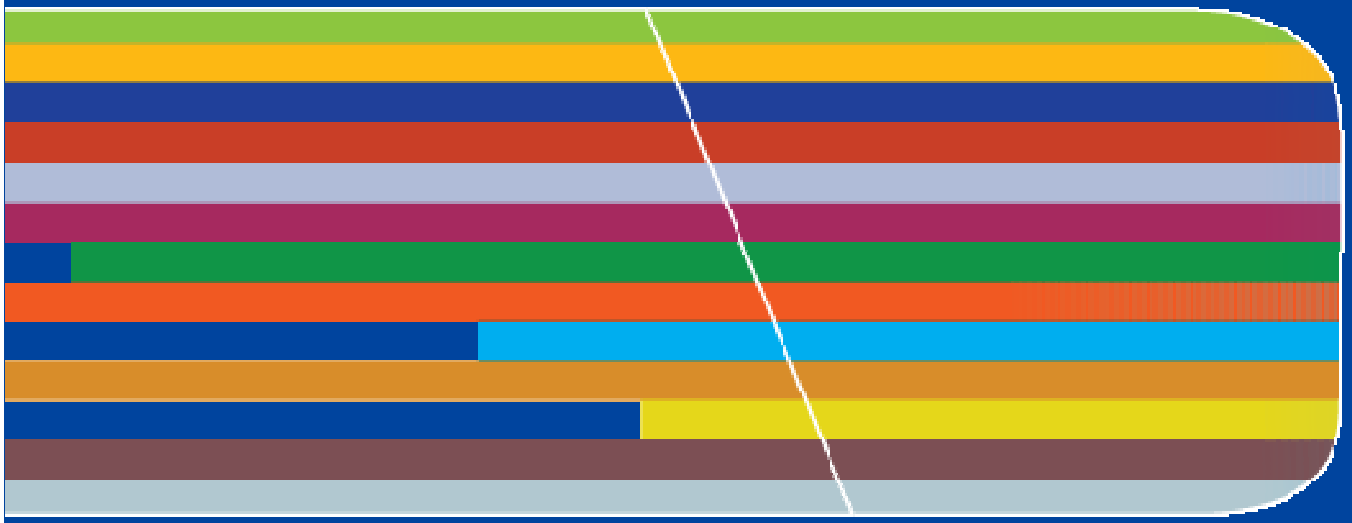
Dudley Dolan

Chairman

CEN Workshop on ICT Skills

www.ecompetences.eu

dudley.dolan@cepis.org



European e-Competence Framework

Dudley Dolan